

Sacramento International Film Festival 2011

Your Premiere Cinema Experience

April 9th through 17th 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

February 2, 2011 – The Sacramento International Film Festival™ is our city's annual celebration of world cinema featuring a dazzling array of international documentaries, shorts and feature films.

This year's festival boasts another stellar showcase of independent film including the new documentary from acclaimed film maker Chris Metzler, "EVERYDAY SUNSHINE: The Story of FISHBONE". – "From the shifting fault-lines of Hollywood fantasies and the economic and racial tensions of Reagan's America, Fishbone rose and became one of the most original bands of the last 25 years. With a blistering combination of punk and funk they demolished the walls of genre and challenged the racial stereotypes and the political order of the music industry and of the nation. EVERYDAY SUNSHINE is about music, history, fear, courage and funk on the one." – Pale Griot Film

The 2011 Sacramento Film Festival (SFF) unspools at multiple venues including the Artisan, The Tower Theater and Sacramento State University with several pre-screenings co-sponsored by our friends at the Center for Multi-Cultural Studies, Foreign Language Department and the Serna Center. Specific shows and show-times will be announced in coming days. Meanwhile, mark your calendar. The Sacramento Film Festival 2011 is your premiere cinema experience.
